

WOMAN PERISHES WHEN LAMP EXPLODES

BOOK WEEK PLANS INCLUDE SEVERAL NOVEL FEATURES

Observance Of Week To Be General In City, Starting November 11.

PLAN BOOK PLAY FOR ALL CHILDREN

Miss Vinton Is Preparing
Special Exhibit At Public Library.

Beginning Sunday, Nov. 11, Americans will observe book week and the observance will not fall below par
in Salem if plans now underway meet no obstacles. Miss Margaret Vinton, librarian at Salem public library, has arranged a program for that week which will meet the needs
and desires of all Salemites old and young.

Reading, better reading, will be fostered and the observance of book
week will be urged by all civic leaders, teachers, educators, ministers and clubs. Miss Vinton has prepared letters to be mailed to all club and organization leaders asking that special reference be made in their programs to book week observance through reading, story telling or other forms.

Perhaps the biggest feature of the week's observance will be a book
play to be presented Saturday afternoon, Nov. 17 at the High school auditorium, in connection with the motion picture attraction. A large number of children will participate in the program and special stage settings and costumes will be prepared for prominent book characterizations.

Children Will Participate

This book play will be directed by Miss Mary Hoffman and sponsored by the public library and is to be presented at 3:30 p. m. at the close of the motion picture. The regular matinee will begin at 1:30 p. m. a half hour earlier than usual, because of the book week program.

The book play will consist of Mother Goose, Fairy tale, legend, nature story, peoples of foreign land and historical tales characters. All the children in the city are urged to take part in the presentation, playing the parts of their favorite story book characters or assisting in the group work.

The teachers of the various schools
have been asked to assist in making the program a success as the closing feature of Salem's book week.

All children participating in the play to be known as "Our Book Fairs" are requested to notify their teachers or Miss Vinton at the library not later than Wednesday evening and on Thursday all the children taking part are asked to meet at the library for complete instructions.

Women's Clubs To Assist

On account of the fact that no admission will be charged for the book play each character will be asked to provide his or her own costume.
These garments, however, need not be expensive. Members of the Trusters and Book clubs will assist Miss Vinton and Holderman with the production.

During the entire week of Nov. 11
carefully selected book exhibits will be found at the library for children of all ages. In addition to these exhibits there will be specially prepared lists of books furnishing advice to parents and teachers on suitable reading for boys and girls.

In the schools special observance of book week will be made, all the grades, Junior High and High school students being asked to give oral or written compositions on good books or the ownership of good books or reading. The art classes of the schools are preparing book week posters to be used in advertising the event.

recorded at 265 miles an hour, but his record stands at 259 miles officially.

VAUDEVILLE, WIRE ARTIST SCHEDULED FOR INDOOR CIRCUS

Group Of Circus Acts Also Booked For Firemen,
Police Benefit.

QUEEN OF CIRCUS TO BE SELECTED

Miss Minnie Sechler Will Have Charge Of Popularity Contest.

City firemen and policemen who are staging a big winter indoor circus and mardi gras week of Nov.
19 in the old Masonic rooms on Main
st. completed arrangements Tuesday for a group of circus acts, including clowns and a tight wire artist, and also entered into contract
with a high class vaudeville circuit
for a number of free acts and attractions which will be seen by Salem people each afternoon and night
of the week.

The purpose of the circus is to raise funds to buy new winter uniforms and guns for the police and firemen. Both departments are in charge of arrangements for the circus and will benefit from the money
taken in so that all funds will be used for them.

One of the biggest features of the circus week will be the popularity contests, which will be in charge of Miss Minnie Sechler. The most popular girl in this district will be selected by the judges who will count
votes sent in by the various contestants.

Tight Wire Performer

All girls in the city and surrounding communities are urged to enter this contest. A valuable diamond ring will be awarded the winner.
Votes will sell at one cent each and firemen and policemen, and volunteers assisting them, will sell the votes. All girls entering should see Miss Sechler at once.

A tight wire performance at noon
and 5:30 p. m. each day will walk a wire from the Henninger building to the Murphy store. This will be the feature outdoor attraction.

The two civic departments are now busy working on a souvenir program of the circus which will

FEW VOTERS CAST BALLOTS EARLY TODAY IN SALEM

Only 697 Votes Polled At Noon; Expect a Large
Total Vote.

JUSTICE TICKET MIXUP IS FOUND

Only Two Vacancies But Ballots Read "Vote
For Three."

A total of 697 votes had been cast in the city and Perry township up to noon Tuesday. Voting was approximately the same as at the primaries
in August.

In one precinct, A. of the First Ward, there were only eight votes cast, the lowest at noon vote ever recorded here. The vote was as follows:

First Ward, Precinct A. 8; B. 95;
C. 31.

Second Ward, Precinct A. 68; B.
109.

Third Ward, Precinct A. 39; B. 52.

Fourth Ward, Precinct A. 66; B.
79; C. 85; D. 20.

Ferry Township, 41.

A discrepancy in the judicial ballot was noted by The News early Tuesday. The ballot on which the names of three candidates for justice of the peace are listed, reads, "Vote for not more than three," while there are only two terms to be filled.

C. A. Cavanaugh of the county election board after communicating with other members of the county board stated that there must have been some error on the part of local offices in certifying the ballot to the county board.

The ballot, it is understood, should have been certified to read, "Vote
for not more than two."

As it stands the county board feel that it must be legal and the ballot
will not be thrown out, the board announced. Instead of the three,
votes will be counted and the two men having the highest number will be named elected.

What action the three candidates will take is as yet unknown. It is thought that the losing candidate
will appeal the decision.

Most of the city vote was expected to be registered later in the day, as the morning vote did not include many factory workers. A large number of women were said to be appearing at some of the voting places.

GOLF CLUB PLANS ANNUAL BANQUET

First Annual Gathering To Be Thursday Evening
At Club House.

Arrangements were completed
Monday evening by the board of directors of the Salem Golf club for the first annual club banquet. This will be an event of Thursday night at the club house, Lisbon rd. and will be for all club members.

The banquet will be served at
p. m. and losers in the president's and vice president's match will be permitted to have the winners as their guests on this occasion. Cups will be awarded the season's winners
and those who have had poor scores
will be given an opportunity to tell their hard luck stories.

The board Monday evening accepted six new members, bringing the total membership to 135. The initiation fee was increased to $125, effective Jan. 1. It was reported that the club is in good financial condition.

Predicts Count Of Vote Will Be Late

Lisbon, Nov. 6.—Unusual quietness reigned in Lisbon today so far as the election is concerned. County election officers are of the opinion that the result of the vote will be very late in being reported and that it will be impossible to have the result of the vote officially tabulated before Wednesday afternoon.

Montague Singers Present Exceptional Program Here

Solos, duets, trios and quartet numbers so varied in nature that every musical inclination was appeased, and two sketches of light opera comprised
the program when the Montague Light Opera company appeared at the First Methodist church Monday night as the second number of the Methodist lyceum course.

The company was composed of two men and two women and rarely are voices of the two sexes found so blend as did those of this company.
Not only was their group work excellent but each one possessed a voice of splendid range and quality.

Grechen F. von Holland, a sketch
which was presented by the Montague Singers, met with the greatest appreciation from the large audience.
Each act brought forth hearty applause which was responded to with original and highly humorous encores.

One especially fine selection was where the entire company imitated a list of various instruments in such rapid order that any other than artists
would have either forgotten the order of the song or twisted their tongues in their attempts to sing the song and imitate the instruments named in the composition.

While the church was well filled with an appreciative audience all the seats were not occupied and many Salemites missed an exceptional musical program.

On Tuesday, Dec. 11, Dr. S. Parkes
Cushman will lecture here as the traveller on the lyceum course program.

Mellon May Act For U. S. On Reparations Board.

Andrew W. Mellon.

President Coolidge is said to be seriously considering appointing Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon as the American representative on the allied board that is to determine Germany's ability to pay reparations, providing French restrictions do not make American participation impossible. Secretary Mellon, a Pittsburgh millionaire, is one of the leading financial experts of the world.

324 PUPILS GIVEN IODINE IN GOITRE PREVENTION WORK

Treatment Is Given Under Direction Of Public School Nurse.

NEARLY ONE THIRD ARE UNDER WEIGHT

Miss Hutcheson Resigns As
Fourth Grade Teacher
At McKinley Ave.

Miss Nellie Lewis, public school nurse, in her report to the board of education Monday night stated that there are now 324 school children in the city taking iodine under her direction
for the prevention and treatment
of goitre.

The board several months ago authorized the use of iodine pills in the schools so that all children who had their parents' consent could take goitre treatment. The large number taking the treatment is an indication of the value placed on the work by the parents.

Miss Lewis reported that $81.50
had been collected for the pills from children. All children, whose parents can afford it, are expected to bring enough money, a very small amount,
to pay for the treatment.

Starting disclosures regarding the weight of school children were made by Miss Lewis. Of the total number 213 per cent are underweight and of these underweight 19.1 per cent are malnourished.

Nurse's Report

Tonsils and adenoids removed, 119;
teeth filled or cleaned, 264; eyes
treated, 18; glasses for children, 26;
treatment for goitre, 19; children
taken to doctors' offices, 44; home
calls by the nurse, 500; children taken to fresh air camp, 8.

All the children taken to the fresh air camp showed marked improvement
in their lung condition.

From Sept. 10 to Oct. 31 the nurse
made 72 visits to schools, visited 51
homes and made 154 dressings.

Mrs. Phoebe Ryland, domestic science teacher, was authorized to conduct dietetic classes for student nurses
at Salem City hospital and Robert Vickers, chemistry teacher, was authorized to teach the student nurses chemistry. Classes in the two subjects will be held after the regular school classes for 24 periods.

The Resignation of Miss Lucille Hutcheson, teacher of fourth grade, McKinley ave., was accepted by the board. Miss Hutcheson has gone to Canton to teach. A substitute is at present taking her place.

109 Inmates Housed At County Infirmary

Now that the cold season is approaching, the number of inmates in the county infirmary is beginning to show an increase over the normal
summer record. The registration Monday showed 79 males and 39 females.

Discuss Make-up At Drama Institute; To Present Plays Soon

At the Drama Institute last evening Mr. Junkin gave a most interesting talk on stage lighting and exhibited some home-made apparatus
with which astonishingly beautiful effects can be produced.

At the meeting tonight the subject will be "Make-up" and this ought to be an interesting topic.

The meetings are open to the public. No charge will be made at any of the meetings this week. This is the last week of the institute. Next week, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, a program of short plays
will be given at the High School au-

3 STATES ELECT GOVERNOR TODAY

Klan Major Issue In Many Local Elections In
This State.

Washington, Nov. 6.—All political leaders watched with great interest
and not a little anxiety today the trend of off-year elections in a dozen states. They hope to obtain by today's contests an insight into the temper of the people with regard to the approaching presidential campaign.

Congressional elections are being held today in seven states, New York, Illinois, North Carolina, Vermont, Kentucky, Arkansas and Mississippi, with one seat in the senate and ten seats in the house at stake.

Three states, Maryland, Mississippi
and Kentucky are electing governors.
In other states, state assemblies are being chosen and various state, county
and municipal measures voted upon.

The single senatorial election today is in Vermont, where Porter H.
Dale, Republican, is opposed by Park
H. Pollard, Democrat, a cousin of President Coolidge.

Local Issues In Ohio

Columbus, Nov. 6.—With the Ku Klux Klan a major issue in many local elections and a large number of measures to be submitted to the electorate, including three proposed constitutional amendments and three referred laws, interest throughout the state today in the "off year"
election was centered mainly on questions of local concern.

HORRIBLY BURNED, FLESH DROPS OFF HANDS AND FACE

Patmos Woman Burned As
She Attempts To Fill
An Oil Lamp.

HUSBAND, IN BARN,
RUSHES TO SCENE

Mrs. John Arbogast, Victim,
Survived By Relatives
In And Near City.

When an oil lamp which she was attempting to light exploded at 7 p.
m. Monday at her home, Mrs. John Arbogast, 48, was horribly burned and died at 2:30 a. m. Tuesday without regaining consciousness. With her husband and three small children she lived on a farm one and one-half miles east of Patmos.

Arbogast was in the barn milking
the cows when the accident happened.
Mrs. Arbogast was with her three small children, Marie, Katherine and Paul,
in the living room and as it was growing dark took the lamp from the table
to fill it with oil.

Sometime before the lamp had been lighted but had presumably been extinguished, Mrs. Arbogast did not turn up the lamp but instead took off the base and started to pour oil
into the base from a large oil can.

In an instant the oil blazed up, believed to have started from the wick
which had not been thoroughly extinguished. The burning oil sprayed over Mrs. Arbogast, setting fire to her clothes and burning her face and arms.

Screaming, one of the children rushed to the barn and called to the husband who ran into the house, tore all the clothing from Mrs. Arbogast, and put out the fire.

Flesh Falls From Face

The flames, however, had too much time, and Mrs. Arbogast was a mass of charred flesh, almost unrecognizable. Horribly burned, the flesh falling from her hands and face the dying woman was placed on a bed
and a physician, who had been called,
dressed the burns.

Little hope was held out for her recovery because of the seriousness of the burns, and at 2:30 she expired.

Mrs. Arbogast was born in Transylvania and came with her husband to America in 1910, from which time
they have lived in the farm house near Patmos.

Her maiden name was Sophia Drot-
t. She has three brothers, Paul, Winona, Andrew, Scoble and John, 108 Roosevelt ave., Salem, who came over with her from Transylvania, and who survive her.

The husband, the three small children at home and three other children, John, Canton, Mrs. Susie
Kirch, Canton, and Mrs. Sophia Spack,
Youngstown, also survive.

Funeral service will probably be held at the Emanuel Lutheran church Salem at 1:30 p. m. Thursday in charge of Rev. B. E. Rutzy. Burial
at Grandview.

MANY GRANGERS TO GET HIGH DEGREES

A large delegation of grangers
from this vicinity will attend the national grange meeting at Pittsburg,
Nov. 14-23 and take the seventh degree, the highest in the organization.

While it is not definitely known just how many will go from the four granges in this district, Perry, Willow Grove, Salem and Goshen, it is probable that there will be at least 60,
with about 30 of that number going from Willow Grove.

Among those who are planning to go are Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stratton,
Miss Helen Whinnery, Miss Mervin
Haffley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. French
and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weingart.

years ago, going to Massillon. He

An Old Story Told Again

IN the federal court at Ft. Worth a number of men are on trial, charged with defrauding purchasers of stock in oil companies they had promoted. For each company there was an attractive prospectus issued, containing what appeared to be a promise for small investors to make large profits quickly. It was a clever appeal to the get-rich-quick spirit that is so plainly in evidence. There were purchasers from all sections of the country. In a few instances there was an occasional small dividend.

In presenting its testimony the government introduced one witness, a widow, 66 years old, from an Ohio city. She had invested her savings, not a large sum, but important to her as it was all she had. One little dividend, she said, was all she had received. She had dreamed of a fortune but awoke to find herself in distress. To procure food she had been forced to sell articles from her home.

It is the same old story, told so many times, since men began to accumulate money by preying on others. These get-rich-quick schemes are directed many times against the inexperienced and credulous. They are helpless to a large degree, they pay over their money only to be deluded and left more helpless. Any banker in the city where this woman lived would have been glad to have given free service and saved her money. She did not seek the advice of friends and she lost. Men familiar with the wiles of the promoters would have been glad to help her, would have told her to keep her money, but she accepted the glittering promises of a stranger.

Ohio has many victims of oil and other promoters, who have suffered loss and fear they will suffer more. Swindling schemes have been sold, some with a color of business have been so badly managed the final result is loss. Many promoters give scant attention to the rights and interests of stockholders. The law is able to reach out and punish these men if it is enforced with vigor. It is purely a question of developing the proper and calling the winners to account. It would be a much desired thing if the state would take these promoters over with their bankers. There are bankers in every Ohio city who would be glad to help.

Let's Have The Truth

SERIOUS charges are perennial in highway construction matters. Thus, at least, has been the history of Ohio roads, and, if we may judge from the secular press, the same situation applies in other states. But it seems that lately a charge more serious than those commonly heard has been bandied about in Ohio. The allegation is made by the present director of highways that the sandstone used as a base on a highway in Athens county was not tested, because, to quote his words, "it was generally known that this sandstone would not pass these specifications."

The material was supposed to have an abrasion test of not more than 25 per cent, but actually had a test much higher. We do not pretend to know the value of these tests, but they have been carefully worked out by scientists and if specified in the contract should be maintained.

Selling inferior materials in expensive highways is dangerous business. It is not merely so much money stolen. The peril to the public is far worse. High-priced highways are peculiarly on trial in this state, as in every other state, and the interests affected would do well to disprove the charges and allegations, or, if they are shown to be true, to go back and do the job over. That would be true economy.

The wearing surface of the highway is brick and that excellent material will be wrongly judged if the highway should chance to break down prematurely, as the present highway director asserts it soon will.

The federal highway man for Ohio is inclined strongly to agree with the state official, disposing of any suggestions.

20 YEARS AGO

(Issue of Nov. 6, 1913.)

Mrs. Charles Lixir, of this city, who underwent an operation in Cleveland, had 65 gall stones removed. This is an unusually large number.

Hon. B. T. Frederick died at his home in San Diego, Calif., from the effect of a fall which he sustained some time ago. He was born in Columbiana county but went to California when a young man. He served two terms in congress.

Mrs. Elias Steele, 72, of Mansfield, mother of George and William Steele, this city, and a former resident here, died early Thursday morning.

Damascus is competing with other towns in the state for a proposed Friends school, the purpose of the institution being to educate and prepare ministers for work in the Friends church.

Less than 40 boys have been killed on the gridiron so far this fall. Republicans carried 63 of the 83 counties of Ohio in Tuesday's election.

Molders of the Victor Stove company have organized a football team to play a game of series of games with the Woodruff team. Among those in the lineup are Fred and Frank Reeves, Will Turner, Henry Maeder, Sam Gibson, Jim Gibson and Spencer Jewell.

The annual meeting of the Salem Missionary union was held last evening at the M. E. church. Mrs. W. L. Vickers, the president, presided.

Miss Thurza L. Schilling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Schilling of Alliance, and Jesse A. Crumline, of that city, were married Wednesday evening. The groom has relatives here.

This morning the east bound trains over the Ft. Wayne were all covered with snow, several inches in depth. Indications were that there was a heavy snow storm last night somewhere between here and Chicago.

J. S. Johnson, superintendent of schools, went to Cleveland this morning to attend the annual teachers meeting.

SOLONS UPHOLD TAXATION ACTS

Officers of Ohio Assembly Reply to Governor Donahey.

LATTER'S CLAIMS CHALLENGED

Teachers and Pupils Called Upon by State Director of Education to Enforce the Law in the Prohibition of Fraternities—Tobacco Growers in Miami Valley Planning For Co-operative Selling.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Presiding officers of the Eighty-fifth general assembly have replied to the attack made by Governor A. V. Donahey upon the Taft and Albaugh taxation laws, which are to be voted on next Tuesday. The statement is signed by H. H. Griswold, former speaker of the house of representatives; Robert C. Dunn, speaker pro tem, and George E. Kryder, president pro tem of the senate.

The governor's statement that the Taft law will increase taxes "is based on the assumption that there is today a 10-mill limit for operating expenses," the legislators' announcement avers.

"The governor is 10 years late," the statement continues. "There are 12 levies today totaling a possible 20 mills, which may be made outside the 10-mill limit today for operating expenses without the vote of the people, and every large city in the state uses the entire 15 mills and more for current expenses."

"A mistake in so fundamental a matter destroys the entire force of his statement. Even the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards does not make this claim."

"The Taft bill, through its effective budget system and bond limitations, aims to limit expenses," the statement adds. "If the expense is limited the taxes will take care of themselves. If the expense is not limited sooner or later it will be paid for."

"The old law tried to limit taxes without limiting either expenses or bond issues. It increased public debt from $180,000,000 to $680,000,000 in 12 years, and, of course, in the end has failed even to hold down taxes. The only hope of lower taxes in Ohio is to establish a pay-as-you-go system and pay off our debts."

"That the governor is 'simply taking what he thinks is a popular course for personal and partisan advantage' is charged by the solons."

Tobacco growers of the Miami valley, with membership in their new co-operative association, representing more than two-thirds of the tobacco acreage in the district, are laying plans for co-operative selling of their product.

Latest tabulation made at the Dayton headquarters of the association shows that practically 90 per cent of the tobacco acreage of Butler county is under contract to the association for co-operative sale. In Warren county the figure is 68 per cent. Greene county lacks 17 acres of the two-thirds acreage figure thought desirable by the organization committee for the success of the association. Miami county has 82 per cent of its acreage grown by association members. Montgomery, Darke and Preble counties are all slightly under the two-thirds figure.

Organization work is expected to be completed within a short time, and a date for closing the pool will soon be announced. This date will mark the closing of membership in the association until all of the present year's crop of tobacco included in contracts to the association is sold.

With the completion of the organization work, the forming of a permanent organization is expected to be developed rapidly. Under the plans made by the growers' committee the new association will be under the direction of district representatives, the number governed by the amount of tobacco in each district. A conference of delegates to perfect the organization and elect officers is planned to be held within the next 30 days.

State Director of Education Riegel, in a statement calling upon teachers and pupils of schools "to obey and enforce the laws of the state in the prohibition of fraternities," names twelve high school organizations as existing or having existed in Ohio recently in "open violation of the state laws." The fraternities named are Alpha Pi, Beta Phi Sigma, Lambda Sigma, Phi Sigma Chi, Chi Sigma Chi, Gamma Sigma, Kappa Phi and Phi Delta Kappa. The sororities are Phi Iota Xi, Delta Kappa Phi, Alpha Theta and Alpha Rho Omega.

Mr. Riegel cited sections of the statutes showing that pupils who are members and teachers who know of the existence of such organizations are subject to a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $25 for each offense.

High school fraternities and sororities are prohibited in their aims."

Persons who want anything know

of lack of proper internal and external restrictions and control they frequently develop into drinking parties, petting parties and instruments of organized mischievousness and misdemeanor."

Superintendents, principals and teachers who fail to inform the president or secretary of the board of education of the existence or the organization of these Greek letter societies "are guilty of a criminal offense," the law holds. The pupil can be suspended from school when proper action of informing the board has been taken and that body in turn requests the pupil to discontinue membership after the latter refuses to withdraw, the director pointed out.

Secretary of State Brown is to hold a conference with Ohio's new deputy registrars of automobiles in this city on Nov. 10. The conference is important in view of the change in the law authorizing the secretary of state to appoint deputy registrars instead of leaving this phase of the auto licensing work to unofficial agencies, as in the past, as well as in view of the imminence of the new licensing period.

The deputies, one or more of whom have been named in each county, the law permitting additional deputies in heavily populated counties to be located at principal community centers will act in conjunction with the state auto registrar, Colonel Chalmers R. Wilson, who has his headquarters in Wyandotte building here. They are authorized to accept applications for licenses and to distribute license tags. Each deputy is under bond to the state.

The conference will be called to order by Secretary Brown at 10 a. m. on Nov. 10. Following a roll call Secretary Brown will make an address of welcome and explain the functions of the new attaches, as designated in the law.

Fred H. Caley, Cleveland, president of the Ohio State Automobile association, will respond, after which instructional talks will be made by Colonel Wilson and A. G. Feight, cashier of the state auto department. Conditions and needs in the various counties will then be discussed by the deputies.

The visitors will lunch at the Deshler at noon, arrangements having been made by Secretary Brown for their accommodation.

Chairman W. W. Durbin of the Democratic state executive committee issued a statement expressing opposition to the Taft and Albaugh taxation measures, both of which are subject to referendum vote Tuesday. In the same statement Durbin suggests Democratic support of the constitutional amendment affecting the workmen's compensation law which has been agreed to by both capital and labor.

The Taft law was "enacted by the legislature and again passed after having been vetoed by the governor, saddling on the people of Ohio added burdens of taxation in excess of $15,000,000 a year," Mr. Durbin said. "The Albaugh law, which disintegrates the present taxation machinery and sets up a new system, providing for the appointment of assessors rather than their election by the people, and adding a great burden of expense unnecessarily, is a companion piece to the Taft law and is framed in behalf of the tax spenders, with little or no thought for the rights of taxpayers," Durbin added.

Durbin declares the Democratic state organization fought these measures while they were before the general assembly and aided in marshaling signatures against them when the question of the submission of the laws to referendum came up. He declared further that "exemplification of the spirit of Democracy and an application of the meaning of the word consistency demands that adherents of the Democratic party in Ohio give careful consideration to the referendum on these two existing laws."

In connection with the workmen's compensation amendment Mr. Durbin declares this law was the product of a Democratic administration and any change looking to its betterment should be supported by the party adherents.

Governor Donahey is not expected at this time to take any action with respect to the complaints filed by representatives of the Ku Klux Klan charging lax enforcement of law in Jefferson county. Following his announced policy, he will not consider charges against any municipal officials until after the elections.

The Jefferson county complaint were filed by Lee Van Tilberg, legal counsel for the Klan. These, with a dozen others, the governor indicated are in his desk and will not receive consideration until after the election.

Attorney General Crabbe indicated that no formal complaint has been filed with him, and that he will take no action unless directed to do so by Governor Donahey. The Jefferson county situation had been discussed before him by a delegation of Stenbenville citizens, recently, he admitted. The attorney general also indicated that a petition is being prepared by his office, at the request of the governor, to bring suit in the supreme court in order to determine the constitutionality of the statute enacted by the last general assembly accepting the John Bryan farm behalf of the state.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

COUNTY REALTY MARKET ACTIVE

Unusual activity in the real estate market of this county is reflected in the increased receipts of the office of County Recorder John Reark, the receipts for the office for the month of October showing an increase of more than $300 above the record for the corresponding month last year.

"They are buying and selling right along," declared Reark, "and they few hours after they have been pre-arranged presented for recording and this adds to the business of the office."

"Both city and farm property seem to be in good demand, and we now have several new plats on the desk for filing, the fees from which will run close to $100 each. We've certainly had a busy season and there is no decline in sight."

TOURING CARS LIKE THE ARK

Cats, Dogs, Canaries, Goldfish and Poultry as Well as Children Carried Overland.

One impression gathered from several months spent by the side of an overland motor trail is that the talk of race suicide is bunk. Broken down flivvers with from one to three adults and six or seven children are not uncommon. The car without two or three children is a rarity.

Practically always there are either children or pets, and usually both. Dogs are exceedingly common; cats and canaries only somewhat less so. But I have seen chickens in coops, pigs, sheep, goats, monkeys, goldfish and wildcats. A certain class of car can be counted upon invariably to contain children, pets and old, dilapidated, uncovered bed springs.

A youngish looking workman sat in the front seat of a car with his rather formidable looking old mother beside him. On the running board a dog dozed in a box, and five canary birds twilted in a cage hung to the back seat.

"How are the live stock standing the journey?" I asked.

"All right," replied the young man. "When the engine goes the dog sleeps and all the birds sing."

In another car I saw a dog loose, a domestic cat in a cage and a bowl of goldfish.

"Women come in here," said an Indian trader who sells blankets, baskets and curios to the tourists, "and buy rings and bracelets, explaining that they have no room in the car for anything larger."—Albert W. Atwood in the Saturday Evening Post.

A Natural Query.

"Aaron A. Piffer has had to sell his dry goods store and move to the city," related the landlord of the tavern at Tompkins. "He made money in a modern way here, ever since he started twenty years ago. But about six months ago he married a handsome young second wife. Well, she said she preferred death to living in a small town like this."

"But," returned a hypercritical guest, "couldn't she have enjoyed both privileges by remaining here?"

Four Americans are being prominently mentioned as men from whom President Coolidge will select the man to represent America on the Reparations Commission to determine Germany's ability to pay indemnities. They are: J. P. Morgan, internationally famous banker; Roland W. Boyden of Boston, former unofficial observer on the Allied Reparations Council; Paul D. Cravath, New York attorney and financier, and Col. James A. Logan, who succeeded Mr. Boyden as unofficial representative on the Reparations Council.

1,000 Ohio Prisoners Kept in Idle House

Columbus, Nov. 6.—The idle house at the penitentiary has come in again for open discussion and the present administration is held responsible for the herding together of almost 1,000 able bodied men at the present time.

Chaplain Reed estimates that the failure of the administration to furnish these men work is costing the state approximately $1,000,000 annually, and in addition to this, medical experts agree that idleness helps to cause sickness and depression.

FINISH CHRISTIAN CHURCH REPAIRS

Old Structure, Modernized
By Many Improvements,
Opens Sunday.

Work is progressing rapidly on the annex building to the First Christian church and workmen are now placing the finishing touches to the interior decorating and wiring.

The first floor of the building will be utilized for the primary department assembly room, with a wash room, reception hall, and pastor's study or office, adjoining. These floors are finished in an imitation marble coating with cherry trimmings. The walls are light with stenciled border designs.

The second floor consists of a large assembly room to be occupied by the combined classes of the senior department which have recently held meetings in the American Legion rooms, Main st.

This room is well lighted and will also be used for extension course purposes by Rev. Mr. Miller. The members of the combined classes will probably choose the furnishings of the rooms on this floor.

A reception room at the head of the stairs opening from the vestibule will be occupied by Miss Rebecca Davis as headquarters for Girl Scouts. A wash room also opens from the second floor vestibule.

Most gratifying results have been obtained by remodeling this old building which is more than 125 years old. It will make an attractive addition to the church property.

The seniors are planning to meet in their new quarters next Sunday. It will depend upon the condition of the floors whether or not the primary room will be occupied next Sunday.

A White Clay

Which France perfected gave me perennial youth

BY EDNA WALLACE HOPPER

I am the most talked-of woman in America, because of perennial youth. After 40 years as a stage star, I look like a girl of 19.

Many years ago I became the rage of New York. I did that, and I kept that beauty, by some aids that France supplied me.

Now I am taking time in a busy life to supply those helps to other women, and tell the facts about them.

Old clays and new

Many years ago France taught me the use of clay. Then clays were crude and muddy, as many clays are still. But they made famous beauties of the women who employed them.

Since then French experts have perfected clay. The clay I now use is white, refined and dainty. It has added factors which bring ten-fold effects.

That new-type clay is what I offer you. I call it my White Youth Clay. Whatever clay you have used, this new clay will amaze you.

A beauty essential

Clay is a beauty essential. Years ago, when few women used it, those few became famous for beauty. Now in every crowd you see multiplied beauty, marvelous youth, all due to the use of clay.

Clay purges the skin of all that clogs it—the causes of sallowness, blackheads and blemishes. It brings the blood to the skin to nourish and revive it. The result is that rosy afterglow which so amazes and delights.

It renews the skin and firms it. It combats all lines and wrinkles, reduces enlarged pores. Many users, in 30 minutes, seem to drop ten years.

No girl can look her best, no woman can keep her youth, without the use of clay.

But primitive clays are out-of-date. Use the best that science knows. I have arranged to supply you the very type I use.

Edna Wallace Hopper's White Youth Clay is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. Price, 50c and $1 per tube. Also my Youth Cream, which should follow clay. Also my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

Let me aid you to new beauty and new youth. To all the joys these helps have brought to me. Start today with my Youth Clay and see the change tomorrow. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address, Waukesha, Wis.

Note—Miss Hopper is now playing the Pantages Vandeville circuit of the Western states.

She Shoots Husband Who Marked Floor.

Mrs. Betty Michaelson of Chicago shot and probably fatally wounded her husband, Charles Michaelson, when he walked on a floor in their apartment which she had spent hours polishing. She had been doing this in celebration of the birthday party she intended giving her baby, Audrey, whom she is shown holding.

FOOD RIOTS GROW, STORES PLUNDERED

Berlin, Nov. 6.—Violent food riots broke out here today. Stores were plundered. Pedestrians and motorists were held up in the streets and robbed. Two hundred arrests were made.

Fearing further food riots the government today lowered the price of bread to $0.009,000 marks a loaf. Excited groups of people gathered in the streets feverishly discussing the economic situation and growing scarcity of food.

AMAZED AT YANKEE TEETH

French Farmers Marveled at the Sight of Doughboys Seemingly Enjoying Cow Fodder.

The French looker is sometimes an old soldier, but often is some black-dad woman who took up her husband's duties when he was called to the front, and who (for he never came back) will continue them until her little friends is grown up—or, as she sometimes sadly puts it, "Until he comes back safe, as I hope, from the next war, m'sieu."

For five more days we paddled along the 100-kilometer stretch of stream that unfurls itself ribbonlike among rolling, windmill-topped slopes between Redon and Nantes, writes Melville Chater in the National Geographic Magazine.

We found that the countryside still fondly recalled the passage of American troops in 1918—how they had swum in the canal and had given the children little packets of chewing gum and had strangely delighted in consuming cow fodder.

This last detail was related to us by a farmer, who added: "Most vigorous young men those, m'sieu. Wonderful teeth, wonderful stomachs. How they could even digest that stuff was the wonder of the countryside." And he pointed to one of those fine fields of Indian corn which in France are cultivated exclusively as cattle food.

"Why, that's easy," we confided; "all Americans eat that." And we described the manner of preparing and dispatching an ear of corn. Suddenly a light broke on the listener's face: "Ah," he exclaimed, "I understand. Then one doesn't eat it, cob and all, like the cow; one just puts it in as if it were an artichoke, m'est-ce pas?"

FREEZE OUT INSECT PESTS

Method Is More Economical Than Gas, Says an Expert on the Subject.

The usual procedure, when flour mills become infested with the Mediterranean moth, the larvae of which get into the flour, is to close the mill tightly and "gas" the insects. Last winter a mill at Williston, N. D., however, requested the local weather bureau office to notify the company whenever a temperature of 20 degrees or lower for at least several hours could be anticipated. As soon as weather sufficiently cold was forecast, the company put out all fires and opened doors and windows. That night the temperature reached 30 degrees Fahrenheit, and did not go above 17 degrees Fahrenheit the next day. According to the report of the company to the United States Department of Agriculture, through the weather bureau, all moths and most of the eggs were frozen, and the process will not have to be repeated for at least two years. Many dollars' worth of chemical insecticides which would have been necessary for "gassing" were saved.

Once More Extended.

It is certain that the limits of Lake Erie and Lake Michigan were once more extended than now. It is reasonably probable, say students of the subject, that some of the territory now drained by the Wabash and Illinois Rivers was once covered by the waters of Lake Michigan. The cisco of Lake Tippecanoe, Lake Geneva, and the lakes of the Oconomowoc chain is evidently a modified descendant of the so-called lake herring. Its origin most likely dates from the time when these small deep lakes of Indiana and Wisconsin were connected with Lake Michigan. Several of the larger fishes, properly characteristic of the Great Lakes region, are found in the Tippecanoe.

AMERICAN CLAIMS WILL ALL BE PAID

Washington, Nov. 6.—American claims against Germany being prosecuted through the German-American mixed claims commission will be protected and paid in full, even though the German government is unable to make reimbursement, Col. Thomas W. Miller, the alien property custodian, announced today.

He has under his control $300,000,000 worth of property seized from Germany during the war which will be turned into cash and used to satisfy American claimants. The first claim levied against Germany was $23,000,000, because of the sinking of the Lusitania.

OIL POLLUTION IS DECLARED MENACE

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE IS TO BE CALLED SOON TO DISCUSS ITS CONTROL.

BUREAU OF MINES REPORTS

Sea Food Supply of the People Is Seriously Damaged by the Contamination of the Rivers and Coastal Waters.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—The United States government finally has taken note of the fact that the greatly increased use of oil as fuel for river, lake and ocean vessels has become a menace to the food supply of the people. An international conference is to be called for the purpose of discussing control of pollution by oil on the rivers and coastal waters of the interested countries.

The bureau of mines, which has among its officials men who understand all about chemicals and things pertaining thereto, has decided that the contamination of the water by oils can be prevented. And on the strength of this finding the State department, acting under a resolution of congress, soon will call a conference on the subject.

Nearly everybody eats fish and oysters. In these days of rapid transit inland folk get their oysters fresh from Cape Cod, the Chesapeake or the Gulf, and their sea-fish from scores of different places. The consumers of these delectables probably will be glad to know that eventually there will be removed from them the suspicion of having been dosed with crude oil before they left their native sea beds.

Sources of the Pollution.
For some years ship owners, oyster dredgers and coast-wise fishermen have complained of this pollution of the water. They never could get anybody to pay any attention to their complaints until comparatively recently. Last year congress passed a resolution authorizing an investigation by the mining bureau. The investigation has been made and the report has been turned in.

It is said that the chief sources of pollution come from oil floated in from the deep sea, waters contaminated by oily material from oil-burning ships, refuse oil from shipping yards, oil waste and oil water mixtures coming from oil fields and refineries, oil from gas plants, oil from sewers and oil from various kinds of manufacturing industries.

Pollution was found at thirty-five different localities which were selected after study, but the greatest trouble was found, it is said, near Philadelphia, near Pensacola, Fla., and near Houston and Port Arthur, Texas.

Some of the Bad Effects.
In the report this is said concerning the public health:

"The possible effects of oil pollution on the public health cannot be ignored. The loss of the use of bathing beaches as the result of oil contamination must be regarded as a more or less serious factor. The same may be said regarding boating, fishing and hunting. Oily refuse may render the appearance of a locality unsightly, and thus tend to lower the hygienic standards of the community. The effect upon the edibility of sea food, and the possibility of oil retarding the normal oxidation of sewage must be carefully considered. Attention is called to the possible effect of oil in causing skin diseases and the nuisance created by the odors directly and indirectly attributable to oil pollution."

Some of the Atlantic coast summer resorts will halt the day of oil pollution prevention. The reports from some of the sea bathing places this year are to the effect that bathers occasionally emerged from the surf looking as if they have been doing eight hours' duty as oilers on a transatlantic liner.

Fish do not like oil unless it is of their own production. Oysters certainly do not thrive upon it, and people who eat fish certainly do not care to partake of it with crude oil as a sauce; neither does the same sauce make a palatable sprinkling for blue points, Cape Cods or Cotuit.

The subject is as big as the waters of the earth. Oil, it is said, can not be replaced as a fuel. It is certain that fish and oysters cannot easily be replaced as food.

Boat Climbs Up-Hill.

It is reported that Bartolomei, an Italian engineer, has designed an ingenious scheme destined to replace the complicated operation of present canal locks. The Italian's arrangement comprises a paddle wheel movable with its axle fitted with wheels to run on iron rails on the banks. The boat is driven up-hill by the water contained in an inclined canal, flowing against the wheel, causing it to revolve on the rails, thereby pushing the boat forward.

The gradient of the canal is intermediary between 3 and 7 per cent and need by no means be constant throughout its length.

Dangerous Sense of Humor.
"Lost your job as a caddy?" said one boy.

"Yep," replied the other, "I could do the work all right, but I couldn't learn not to laugh."

REFRIGERATION AID TO FOOD ECONOMY

Research work being carried on by the ice men of the country is bringing out some interesting facts about the mistakes made by the average housekeeper who wishes to economize on food.

One of the outstanding discoveries so far made by the House of Refrigeration Bureau of the National Association of Ice Industries is that women have very little practical knowledge of the principles of refrigeration and how to take care of good foods after they are bought.

The Citizens Ice company furnishes the following facts based upon a recent publication by Dr. Mary E. Pennington, who is in charge of the bureau in question:

"Many thrifty housewives consider ice a luxury not to be indulged in with the passing of the hot days. This practice is an extravagant form of economy. The latest edict from the dietetics laboratories is that we should have raw salad greens twice daily and a fresh uncooked fruit at each meal for our best health."

"Long and intense heating does destroy bacteria but also some of the valuable vitamins are lost, especially vitamin C, the so-called preventing vitamin. These vitamins so vital to maintenance and growth occur largely in fresh fruits and vegetables."

"Cold only will maintain freshness in foods and retard bacterial decomposition without changing the composition of those foods on which nutrition and good health largely depend."

"The more easily assimilated foods which are found in the diet of infants and anemic persons spoil very easily. Chronic digestive disturbances often are traceable to contaminated and decaying foods."

THEATRES

"The Spoilers." Jesse D. Hampton's screen production of Rex Beach's celebrated novel of the Klondike which was presented at the State theater Monday is an immense picture. When Sellz filmed this red blooded romance of Alaska's gold rush a decade ago it was regarded as the greatest photoplay of its day. But this 1923 version is assuredly one of the most spectacular and exciting pictures ever made.

A remarkable cast is seen in the picture with Milton Sills as the manly hero; Anna Q. Nilsson as Cherry Malotte the loyal dance hall queen; Barbara Bedford, a pretty brunette as Helen Chester, the innocent heroine; Noah Beery as McNamara, the crooked but courageous politician; Mitchell Lewis as Marshal Voorhees afraid of no man that walked; Robert Edeson, as the rough and ready Joe Dextery, mine owner and ready to face death for his rights; Sam de Grasse as the cowardly Judge Stillman; Robert McKim as Struve the crooked lawyer; Ford Sterling, Rock-life Fellowes, Louise Fazenda, Gordon Russell Wallace MacLonald and numerous other players well known for their ability to act Western roles.

Rheumatic Agony

It does not matter to me whether you are disabled with cursed rheumatism or have only occasional twinges. I know that Allenhu, my own discovery, will stop the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and reduce the swollen joints says Mr. Allen.

I know it will dissolve the uric acid deposits that have become deeply imbedded in joints and muscles and quickly drive every trace of rheumatism from your body. I know this because I was crippled for years and many times was unable to work, and Allenhu made a well, robust, healthy man of me.

I know because since I cured myself hundreds have taken Allenhu and speedily rid themselves of this agonizing disease.

No matter how severe your case, I urge you to put your faith in the prescription that it took me years to perfect—a prescription that made a new man of me after doctors tried and failed.

Allenhu is no laggard; it starts right in at once; it gets into the blood, searches out the poisonous uric acid deposit and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that cause rheumatism, out of the blood through the natural channels.

American Hospital Association Holds Jubilee Convention

Miss Flora Esie Weibach, R. N., superintendent of Salem City hospital, returned to this city Saturday from Milwaukee where she attended the 25th annual conference of the American Hospital association which opened Monday, Oct. 29, and continued to Nov. 2.

It is reported that the conference was one of the most helpful ever held by the association. The exhibits which covered two acres of space marked the advance of hospital development. Much attention was given at the conference to a consideration of public health problems and improved methods of conducting hospitals and training schools for nurses.

A message was received from the president of the United States:

"I have just had my attention directed to the forthcoming Silver Jubilee convention of the American Hospital association, in recognition of the completion of its 25 years of useful service. I wish to have my own numbered among the congratulations that will be extended to the association on this occasion. The development of hospital work and equipment in our country in the last quarter century is truly one of the striking accomplishments of an advancing civilization. The association has my best wishes for continuing usefulness. I hope the convention this year may mark a new step in the advance of this great humanitarian service."

"Fatty" Arbuckle Sued For Divorce

Mr. & Mrs. Roscoe Arbuckle.

Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, said to be making $6,000 a week in a Chicago cabaret, has been sued for divorce by his wife, Minta Durfee Arbuckle, who filed the suit in a Providence (R. I.) court, charging desertion in 1917 and alleging that he has failed to support her. They were married in Long Beach, Cal., when Arbuckle was struggling along as an "extra." Although they were separated his wife rushed to San Francisco and defended him valiantly when he was tried for and acquitted of the murder of Virginia Rapp. Even now she maintains her belief in his innocence.

Regard Wellsville High As Logical Title Contender

Leetonia's Defeat Was Only Upset In County Games Last Saturday.

Salem High's upset of Leetonia High's hopes for the county championship was the outstanding game in the county race last Saturday. Coach Shupp's outfit is now relegated to the B class with one win and one loss.

East Liverpool, with many subs in the last quarter downed Lisbon High 56-16 at the county seat. Lisbon was expected to be beaten, and was not thought strong enough to pile up 15 points on the pottery city team.

One particular method of attack, the forward pass, accounted for Lisbon's points. Line crashes and plain old straight football were the order for Liverpool.

Wellsville found an easy victim in Niles High. The Trumbull county aggregation could never get started and lost 41-6. This game, with the

SHORT SPORT SHOTS

In another column today the prowess of John Siskowic, former Salem High star, is discussed from a Wooster viewpoint. Coach Boles of the Wooster school is unsparring in his commendation of Sisk's playing. He was one of the best backs ever turned out of Salem High. Sisk always was willing to work and liked to be in the background rather than a big name in print. And Sisk has arrived, if you will take Coach Boles' word for it.

Bleachers to seat 500 persons will be erected at Reilly field soon. That will be cheering news to local football fans who have for these many years stood on the ground in all kinds of weather.

Glenn Warner of Pitt, battle scarred veteran of grid camps, is another football coach who is the recipient of serenades by the anvil chorus. Pitt suffered its four straight defeats Saturday. But you can't win all the games all the time, says Warner, and he is right. It would be too much to expect a championship team every year.

SALEM HIGH FACES WEEK OF GRUELLING WORK FOR BATTLE

Wellsville Game Will Be Battle As River Team Is Very Strong.

A week of gruelling work is ahead of the Salem High football squad, Saturday the team goes to Wellsville and all indications point to one of the hardest battles of the season.

Last Saturday Wellsville walked all over Niles High taking the game 41 to 6. And only three days before Wellsville trampled on Sebring High 26 to 6.

That in itself tells the story of the prowess of the river city team. And it means that if Salem High is to knock another county conference leader from the heights of victory the team must put all the fight into the fray that is ahead against Niles and Leetonia. A little more to be said with Wellsville is nothing to be trifled with.

It was a well oiled machine that faced Leetonia last Saturday. It faced perhaps the sweetest victory was perhaps the Red and Black team has won that for some time and mainly because it showed the school, the city, and yes, the team members themselves, that teamwork and unity, heady football and reserve strength and fight are the things that won the game and knocked Leetonia from the pedestal of the undefeated.

Now the test of all this teamwork, which will in all indications be continued, will come Saturday. There are four of the most dangerous teams on the field men in these parts on the Wellsville team. They are Orr, full; Todd, quarter; D'Amato, right half; and Campbell, left half.

Todd is a triple threat man. He can pass, kick and run the ends with ease. Orr, somewhat heavier, is a line plunger of the first caliber and has been tearing up opposing lines with uncanny ability.

Campbell is one of the best backs in scoring in the county. He seems to have an attraction for the goal line, or its vice versa. But his teammate, D'Amato, is the real star half of the team. And it's this man who must be watched Saturday when he tries to dash around end.

Culp, center, and the two ends, Young and Rolley are regarded as aces at Wellsville but Salem's ends and center should not find them serious trouble.

SISKOWIC EARNING SPURS AT WOOSTER

Wooster, Nov. 6. — Coach Boles gave John Siskowic, Salem High athlete, a chance to win his spurs in the 16 to 9 victory over Reserve at Cleveland last Saturday.

"Twigs" as he has been nicknamed by his teammates is very popular with both the players and coaches and all are expecting him to develop into one of the best backs in the state.

The score is not a fair indication of the strength of the two teams.

SIX BIG ELEVENS LEADING FIELD OF COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

Michigan, Notre Dame, Yale, Cornell, Syracuse and Illinois In Lead.

New York, Nov. 6. — Post-mortem evidence, furnished by the football returns of the week end show that Michigan Notre Dame, Yale, Cornell, Syracuse and Illinois remain the front runners in the field of national activity.

Chicago, Penn State, Dartmouth and California were adjudged guilty of misrepresentation but in the case of Wisconsin, W. & J. and Minnesota, the jury is still out.

Chicago was virtually eliminated from further consideration as a possible middle-western champion when it finished second to the Illini, a wonderfully fast outfit featuring one grand old scorer of the big ten, Michigan and Notre Dame stuck with the pace by disposing of Iowa and Purdue respectively but Penn State faded out before the running attack of Syracuse and California last week nationally, by getting no better than a score stand-off with Nevada.

This result can mean only one of two things, to-wit: Either Nevada has quite a football team or California lacks the punch of other years. In any case, the Bears now must give additional proof that they belong.

The most impressive teams in the east are Cornell, Yale and Syracuse, named in the order of their present worthiness. Hand-picked schedule or otherwise, Cornell allenced all adverse comment in running up 32 points on a Dartmouth eleven, fresh from a victory over Harvard and until that moment undefeated. It looks like another Cornell year with only Pennsylvania in the offing. The Penn team is coming on rapidly but probably will be several jumps removed from adequacy for such a test as Cornell can and will offer.

Yale was a great second-half team.

against the Army and the impetus of that rally should carry right on through to the end of the schedule. If Yale does not beat Harvard and Princeton this year, it might just as well turn its attention to canoeing and the finer arts.

Syracuse added to a fine record by beating Penn State and kept its goal line inviolate, a record equalled by only Wisconsin, Michigan and California. The Orange seems to have one of the best defensive outfits in the country.

Minnesota kept in the running out west by outscoring Northwestern but the Gophers seem to be a trifle short of the ability of such teams as Illinois, Michigan and Notre Dame. Carnegie Tech finally passed beyond championship ranking by losing to Lehigh while the best Nebraska could do was a 7 to 7 tie with Missouri.

W. & J. also was held to a tie. Lafayette coming from behind in the final period, and according to neutral observers, really deserving a victory.

Cambridge, Ohio—"During expectancy I was almost a physical wreck. I was nervous, could not sleep, suffered with nausea, or sick stomach, had backaches, pains in my side and bearing pains. I was so near down that I could not do anything. Finally I decided to give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a trial. I had taken this medicine only a few days when I could see that my nerves were better, and by the time I had taken two bottles I felt as well as anyone could wish to be, did all my work and felt well and strong the remainder of the time. I had comparatively no suffering—was ill just a short time and I had a very fine healthy baby weighing nine pounds. The expectant mother will find 'Favorite Prescription' a great help in many ways."—Mrs. Milton Tiplie, 707 S. 10th St.

EUROPE WILL BE CAMPAIGN ISSUE

THIS SEEMS CERTAIN, BUT THE GOVERNMENT'S FOREIGN POLICY IS NOT YET KNOWN.

PRESIDENT REMAINS SILENT

Despite Assertions of Advocates and Opponents of World Court, Mr. Coolidge Isn't Discussing Such Topics Before Congress Meets.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—The old saying that the wish is father to the thought seems to find substance to prove its truth in Washington today. Advocates of American membership in the World court say that the President is certain stanchly to support the Harding plan, while equally positive statements are made in reverse by the opponents of American membership in the court.

It makes some of the onlookers here fairly dizzy to try to keep their vision fixed on two warring opinions in the World court matter. The plain fact is that nobody but President Coolidge, and presumably Secretary of State Hughes, know definitely just what the foreign relations intention of the administration is, or how it may be developed or modified between now and the meeting of congress.

Authoritative words which have come from the White House from time to time on the general subject of the presidential intention in this court matter, and in other matters also, apparently have had no weight with the guessers in any case. It was not so long ago that the White House let it be known that President Coolidge did not intend to discuss certain subjects in advance of the meeting of congress.

Will Wait for Congress to Meet.

The word, and it was authoritative, was that certain respect was due the lawmakers and that White House did not consider it either politic or courteous to thrust out in advance the grain which was intended for the congressional threshing machine. Despite this word flat statements have been printed to the effect that the President definitely has abandoned all thought of pressing the World court matter, and on the other hand that he has made up his mind to press it as strongly as the power of the administrative arm will admit.

Opponents of entrance into the World court and opponents of anything which look toward a mingling in the affairs of Europe, daily are saying that the League of Nations with all things akin to it is a dead issue and that it cannot be resurrected because its grave was dug with the spade of the American people and the earth was piled high on the corpse.

On the other hand the friends of the league looked upon the while not party leaders, believe that something should be done to help Europe declare the issue is not dead and that not being dead it never was buried. They say the burial of 1920 was only a semblance of an interment and that the corpse is livelier today than ever.

From the general trend of things in Washington one thing seems to be assured: Europe is to be a leading issue in the next presidential campaign. The men who will direct the next Democratic campaign recently have shown more courage in their discussion of the League of Nations as a party issue. There is a movement now in the ranks of Democracy to spur the interest of the women in the subject. The feeling seems to be in Democratic circles that the women voters more than the men voters can be depended upon to support the Wilson plan for "bringing lasting peace into the world."

Wish Father to the Thought.

There is one circumstance which adds to the general side line interest in the conflicting stories concerning the Coolidge intention in the court subject. When the authoritative word came from the White House some time ago that matters of national legislative moment were not to be discussed in advance of the meeting of congress, the statement was made that this dictum concerned itself with all matters of high moment.

The writers and the talkers of the present day who assert that "without contradiction it can be said that Mr. Coolidge will not press the court matter," or that he will press it, seem to be willing to pay the administration the poor compliment of declaration that it does not know its own mind, or that it is entirely willing to break its word by making an exception of one subject which definitely was included in a bunch of subjects set aside for silence.

President Coolidge came into office as a brother of the sphinx. The kinship had been known to the public for years. The curious thing is that men here who know what they hope one way or the other are willing to admit that the President will not talk about anything except the one thing that they want him to talk about. It is about as definite a case of the wish being father to the thought as one can find in the whole range of public life.

POTATO GROWERS GET BIG YIELDS

City And Farm Property In Demand, Recorder's Office Reports.

The potato yield from Columbiana county farms where certified seed potatoes was used shows an average of from 185 to 200 bushels an acre according to official reports filed with County Agent C. E. Rowland, and made public Monday night.

Before farmers were prevailed upon to use certified seed the yield averaged around 65 bushels an acre as a top—yields from some acreage being below this figure.

Two cars of Wisconsin Early Ohio certified seed potatoes will be distributed in this county this week the first car of 600 bushels arriving in Lisbon Monday. The second car is due to arrive at Salem from Wisconsin later in the week and it will contain around 360 bushels.

The stock is being sold members of the County Farm Bureau this year at $1.30 delivered.

Other cars of certified seed potatoes will come into this county some months later but those growers who wanted their seed stock early were accommodated with early shipping. It has been indicated that a greater increase in the use of certified seed potatoes will be shown in this county during 1924 than at any time since the campaign was launched a few years ago.

Mothers know a dose of
DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin
Will keep them fit

'First Aid' For Sick Children

The experienced mother is not alarmed when a child becomes sick. She knows that most of the ailments of childhood are trifling. If it seems serious she calls a doctor, but whether or not she calls him she gives, first of all, a good laxative medicine. The doctor would advise that anyway. It is his "first aid." Such experienced mothers as Mrs. Everett E. Hunt of Belzoni, Okla., who has three children and never any sickness, and Mrs. F. B. Kuklinski of Prosser, Wash., always give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at the first indication of sickness. Such timely doses have saved them much worry.

The Meaning of "Good"

All doctors agree that a thorough cleaning out of the bowels is of first importance for it removes dangerous intestinal poisons. They will also advise a "good laxative," and by "good" they mean one that is effective and yet harmless. They know that there are physics that never should be given to children—calomel, which is mercury and loosens the teeth; phenolphthalein, a coal-tar drug that causes skin trouble; salts, which concentrate the blood and dry up the saliva. They consider Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin safe for all ages as they know it is a simple vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and agreeable aromatics. The formula is on the package.

Give Laxative for Colds

Adults should have at least one movement of the bowels every 24 hours, and children two or three. Failure to have it means constipation, then headache, biliousness, drowsiness, lack of appetite. Give a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bedtime, and there will be health and good feeling by morning. A dose costs less than a cent, and a bottle can be had at any drug store. Colds and constipation come together, so if you notice coughing or sneezing stop it at once with Syrup Pepsin.
